Soup And Cracker Buffet

"Be it light or hearty
From a mug or bowl
Soup...and crackers...
Fight winter's cold!"

Yes, after a brisk walk...a skate around the pond...or any cold weather activity, there's nothing more enjoyable or relaxing than hot soup. It warms weather-chilled folks right down to their toes.

Invite the folks in for an informal soup buffet. Bedeck the table with an array of soups. Prepare two or three kinds. Serve from a variety of utensils. It's so easy to do this with the wonderful selection of canned condensed soups and household items now available. Here are a few suggestions:

Ladle canned condensed minestrone soup with a dash of oregano from a bean pot

From a heat-proof pitcher pour canned condensed cream of chicken soup seasoned with a bit of curry powder into mugs

Help yourself to a bowl of canned condensed onion soup topped with grated Parmesan cheese from a wide-mouth carafe.

Since soup and crackers are natural go-togethers, arrange a selection of crisp crackers (you'll find there are so many to choose from). They're the perfect finger foods for sipping soups. And, too, an assortment of...

Farmers, Ranchers Reminded Of Tax Return Filing Requirements

Area farmers and ranchers were reminded today that Monday, January 16, is the final day for filing their estimated Federal income tax returns for 1960, unless they plan filling their final return on or before February 15.

A. P. Andrews, administrative officer of Internal Revenue Service at Temple, explained that those farmers and ranchers who file an estimated return on January 16 and pay the tax due thereon have until April 17 to file their final return and pay any balance of tax due. Otherwise, the law requires that they file their final return and pay the full amount of the tax due by February 15.

The IRS representative said that this option is available to farmers and ranchers only. The tax defines a farmer or rancher as one who derives two-thirds or more of his gross income from farming or ranching. He advised farmers and ranchers that if they filed a federal income tax return last year the necessary forms for this year will be mailed to them. For those who did not file, or for some other reason do not receive their forms in the mail, blank forms may be obtained from the nearest Internal Revenue Service office, or from post offices or banks.

"Everyone who had a gross income (not net) of $600 or more during 1960 must file an income tax return with Uncle Sam, whether or not any tax is owed."

Only exception to this rule is that if you were 65 years of age or over at the end of 1960, you are not required to file a return unless your gross income was $1,200 or more."

Needed assistance is available from the Revenue Service, both by telephone and in the office, but taxpayers are urged to fill out their own returns as far as possible before contacting IRS.

Rockdale's Tigers, paced by the speedy ball handling of Donnie Laurence and Daniel Yezak handed the Cameron Yoemen a 58 - 53 defeat last Tuesday night in the Yoemen's first conference basketball game of the season.

The game was played before a large crowd of enthusiastic Rockdale and Cameron fans in the Rockdale High School gymnasium.

Excitement ran high as the Yoemen chewed away at a 33-24 half-time score in favor of Rockdale. After three quarters of play it was all tied up, 44-44.

The Yoemen never took more than a two point lead before Rockdale, with a last minute surge made the best of faulty Yoemen passes and steady basket shooting. Donnie Laurence totaled the Rockdale scorers with 20 points while Daniel Yezak got 14.

Pat Dillon with 55 points and Ed Lierman with 35 top the remaining Yoemen scorers. Dillon has a 5.0 average and Lierman a 3.2.

VOS

In grade school, the 8th grade basketball team has composed a 3-0 record. They will go to Milano next Wednesday for their next game.

Agri - Business A Reality ...

The Milam County farm census showed figures that were expected by observers in this area: more big farms and fewer farmers.

At the same time a five-year comparison of businesses in North Milam County showed more listings in Dun & Bradstreet, the financial reference book of commerce.

Farm census figures showed comparisons of figures of 1954 and 1959 and they reflected:

ONE—2,002 farms in 1959, about 657 fewer than five years earlier, including redefinition of 144 farms which before were considered farms if a minimum of three acres produced $150. Now a farm is defined by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture if 10 acres produce $50 yearly.

TWO—Mechanization has assumed a major role in Milam County farming with more machinery and fewer laborers, nearly twice as many cornpickers, for instance ... i. e., 1954 farm labor earned $1,217,048 vs 1959 with $925,437; machine hire totaled $345,267 in 1954 compared to $686,265 in 1959.

Many other statistics point up the direction of consolidation, larger investment and more diversified farming.

Meanwhile, Cameron businesses have increased by nine the number using D&B ratings to determine credit with customers and other businesses, suggesting that more businesses are adapting statistical assistance in their operation. It is interesting that since the boom construction of Rockdale's Alcoa Works, D&B listings in Rockdale have gone from 127 to 99 in five years.

With the average Milam farm now worth $22,232 and 233.9 acres in size (almost $100 an acre), farming has obviously become bigger business. The average 1954 farm was 185.7 acres and worth $14,201.

Cuban Problem Only One In Long Series For The New President

Dear editor:

A man in town cornered me the other day after I'd finished drinking a cup of coffee and also right after I'd paid for it and said, Say, you like to write letters about things, when you gonna write one on what to do about the Cuban situation?

I told him I'd think about it. After thinking about it for a week, I have come to the conclusion that thinking about the Cuban situation, while it doesn't accomplish anything, is still about the only thing that can be done about it at the moment. It's sort of like watching a flood carry your fence down the creek. If somebody had built a dam upstream years ago, maybe the fence wouldn't have washed out, but at the moment, the only thing left to do is sit and watch it float away.

A neighbor of mine was saying just this morning what a shame it is for President - Elect Kennedy to no more than get sworn in to the Cuban crisis. Now in January 20 when he has to time to lean back and get the feel of the Chief Executive's chair in the White House, no time to wander around the place and get used to the idea that he's overtime the first day.

But I don't look at it that way. I have a notion that four years from now President Kennedy will review the situation and wish that all his problems had been no worse than the Cuban situation. Now the President, has to work. When a man applies for the job of President in these days, he's got to be equipped to thrive on one crisis after another, each new one probably worse than the old one.

Therefore, don't be looking to me for a solution to the Cuban situation. That's what the President is hired for.

I will add though that trying to solve the Cuban problem is like trying to stop a flood after it reaches your place. What you've got to solve first is the Russian problems. And before I can do that, I've got to solve the problem of this Johnson grass farm. This puts Russia a long ways off on my list.

Yours faithfully,
JA.

Texas Motorists To Be Seeing Red

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Texas motorists soon will be "seeing red," when they approach highway construction projects.

State Highway Department announced that the signalmen who direct traffic around construction projects will start wearing fluorescent red nylon vests and waving flags of the same bright material. Use of the new material has been adopted as an additional safety measure since it will be more visible, day and night. At night, flares will be used also.

Same signals will be used by the flagmen. Flag - holding arm fully extended horizontally means "stop". Movement of the flag - man's free arm means "proceed."

Cameron Gains 5 Percent In D and B Listings

Cameron showed a gain of 5 percent in Dun & Bradstreet business listings in the past five years while Rockdale and Thorndale showed decreases.

And Buckholts gained 4 percent on one additional listing gained during the period from 1956 to January 1961.

R. C. Cushman, manager of the Houston office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., announced statement requests were mailed to 387 businesses in Milam County.

He said figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference book for January, 1961, totaled 387 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in this area as compared with 369 in 1956 — a decrease of one percent of the period.

Dun & Bradstreet sent requests to approximately three million business concerns, ranging in size from small businesses to operations worth millions.

The D&B Reference book lists manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit, but it does not include some service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers.

The Reference book showed this trend during the past five years.

Employers Told Of SS Deductions

Employers are cautioned to read carefully the information notice regarding Social Security deductions recently received with their direct mailing of Tax Form 941.

Internal Revenue Service District Director R. L. Phinney said at Austin today that the percentage rate of 3.1 does not apply to withholdings for FICA (Federal Insurance Contributions Act), which rate continues to be 3 percent. The 3.1 percent rate refers to deductions for FUTA (Federal Unemployment Tax Act), which are made annually at the end of the calendar year.

Poage Recounts 87th's Opening

By Cong. W. K. Poage

the result.

On Tuesday, January 3, a new Congress (the 87th) came into existence. The meeting was called to order by the Clerk of the 86th Congress. He had the roll of Members called by States. He then declared a quorum present and announced that the election of a Speaker was in order. Each party nominated the candidate it had selected in Caucus the day before. The roll of Members was then called in alphabetical order with the Member answering either "Rayburn" or "Halleck."

As was expected, the Democratic Majority elected Mr. Sam Rayburn, who in a few weeks will have served more than twice as long as Speaker than any other man. We then elected those Members which each Caucus had nominated for the Ways and Means Committee. The Democratic Members of this Committee will in turn recommend Democratic Members of all other Committees.

A few moments ago (Friday, January 6), I witnessed a very unusual and dramatic action by Vice President Nixon. The Constitution requires a Joint Session of Congress to "canvass" the electoral vote. This is done by opening the envelopes containing the certificates from the various States, showing the vote of the electors of that State. The envelopes are physically opened by clerks and then handed to members of a joint committee, who read the certificate aloud and then recorded

All of this takes place in the presence of both Senators and Representatives, and as presiding officer, the Vice - President announced the result. In spite of its complexity, our system works. Where else in the whole world would we see the defeated candidate proclaiming the election of his opponent?

Yesterday, in the absence of Chairman Cooley, I was asked by President Kennedy to come to New York and take part in a discussion of the farm problem at his hotel. I sat with Mr. Schumm, President of the Farm Bureau, on the plane to New York. I shared a taxi into town with Mr. Newson of the Grange and sat next to Mr. Patton of the Farmers' Union at the meeting.

President Kennedy, Vice President Johnson and Secretary Freeman met with a group of 18 farm leaders and discussed for two hours the best method of coordinating farm views. It was agreed to hold a meeting two weeks from next Thursday in Washington where the four major farm organizations will formally present their views to the new Secretary and where other farm groups and Congressmen can discuss, criticize and question.

Highway Department

Announces New Safety Measure

AUSTIN — The Texas Highway Department today announced a highway safety measure designed to protect the motorist by making him see red -- literally. The Department said it will require flagmen directing traffic at highway construction and maintenance projects to wear bright red vests and to use a flag of the same color.

The men in the red vests will begin appearing on Texas highways by mid - February, when Highway Department employees working on maintenance jobs will don the eye - catching apparel. Made from fluorescent red nylon, the new vests are designed to make flagmen more easily visible and recognizable to motorists both day and night. At night the vests and flags will be supplemented by flares.

Red flags have been used by flagmen in the past but the fluorescent color and the vests are new requirements, made to insure added safety and convenience for the public in the movement of traffic to and through highway construction and maintenance operations," said D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer. He hailed the new vests as a safety measure not only for motorists but also for highway workmen.

"Now, anyone else on the board oppose using the Want Ads?"

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford
Cartop boats often are a topic of discussion among fishermen.

Some say that for the average fisherman these little boats, which can be fastened atop an auto by one man, are ideal. Others say they aren't much good for anything but kids and farm tanks.

Certainly, all of us know that the little cartops have their place in this day of rockets and satellites, just like everything else. Of course no boatman, no matter how daring would head into the open Gulf in a cartop boat. Nor would anyone who knows big lakes, head into the center of a huge body of water with a small boat pushed by a three horsepower motor.

But, picture this in mind. Suppose you are riding along a country road, trailing a big fishing boat, when all of a sudden you spot a beautiful little lake or pond that you know is full of fish.

In a quick glance you realize that it is impossible to launch your boat off the trailer. Worse yet, it's still two or three miles down the road to the nearest launching ramp.

They're Easy to Launch
This is one time when it would have been nice to own a light, cartop boat, that could be plopped into the water quickly.

I have wished many times that I owned a cartop so that I could fish some spots near shore, but in an area that offered no decent launching for heavier boats.

A number of fishermen will argue that "cartops" aren't fast enough in the water to get you from one spot to another.

Our answer is that good roads surround most lakes and a cartop boat owner can jerk his boat out of the water and strap it back on top of the car and be on his way to another spot in short order. In fact he can, usually, arrive here before the fishermen do, in their big fast boats.

If a squall blows in, the small boat owner needs but to pull ashore, drive his car to where the boat is beached and load up.

GEESSE AND QUAIL ONLY
AUSTIN — The Texas goose season is open through Jan. 8. It now is illegal to kill ducks, doves, deer or turkey. Over-all quail season under the general laws will close Jan. 16. The quail season west of the Pecos closed Dec. 31.

Year's Poultry - Livestock Outlook

1961 Beef Cattle Outlook Told By A&M Expert

COLLEGE STATION — The estimated 1961 meat production will provide consumers of the U. S. with the largest supply of meat in history, both in total and per person. If the estimates prove correct, Lloyd Bergsma, extension livestock marketing specialist, says consumption of red and poultry meats would exceed 200 pounds per person for the first time in history.

Bergsma says livestock producers will be faced with a generally downward trending market during 1961. Prices during the first half of the new year will not feel the effect of increasing supplies as strongly as those for the last half. He expects slaughter cattle to average near 1960 levels during the earlier months of 1961, but increasing supplies of grass cattle and more competition from expanded hog production are expected to have their effect by late summer. The greatest price drops are forecast in the lower grades of cattle.

The specialist expects a continuation of the herd build-up which started in 1958. But, he adds, weather conditions can play a mighty important role. Cattlemen can be expected to react quickly to changes in crop and pasture conditions, since cattle numbers on the farms and ranches of the nation are now at an all time high.

On the brighter side, Bergsma says consumers have, partially at the expense of other meats, increased their consumption of beef and he sees a continuation of this strong demand. This trend should help ease the downward pressure in prices resulting from the expanded supplies. The increased domestic supplies of stocker and feeder cattle will continue to reduce the level of cattle and beef imports, says Bergsma.

Lower cattle prices do not necessarily mean that profits will be absent in cattle enterprises. But, Bergsma suggests to producers they study the price indicators when planning their operations.

Broiler Industry For 1961 Studied

COLLEGE STATION — The nation's broiler industry during the past 20 years has established a remarkable record of growth because of widespread and popular acceptance of broilers by consumers. Just 20 years ago, Marshall Miller, extension poultry marketing specialist, points out that the average American ate only 1.97 pounds of broiler annually. Ten years ago the figure stood at 8.65 pounds but today it stands at 23.65 pounds per capita.

Miller believes the upward trend will continue but at a more modest rate. As for 1961, he says indications now point toward even higher production. Total hatchery supply flock pullets placed ran 7 per cent higher for the first 10 months of 1960 than for the same period in 1959. These are the flocks which supply the hatching eggs for the broiler industry, Miller explains. Since September 1, 1960, broiler chick production has been averaging about 15 percent

Broiler prices to the producer in 1961 are likely to average close to those of 1959. Principal factors, according to Miller, are the prospective larger supply of broiler and other poultry meat plus increased supplies of red meats. The leveling-off of the general economy is not a serious factor in the broiler price picture. Miller points out that broilers are already relatively low in price compared with other main-course foods.

Because of the troubled situation, Miller suggests to producers that they and truckers deliver to the processing plant broilers free of skin and flesh bruises — an improvement which could add millions of dollars annually to producers' income. Also that all segments of the industry cooperate in a program to reduce condemnations and that broilers be identified at the retail outlets as to known quality and wholesomeness.

Last but of major importance Miller suggests that everyone connected with the broiler industry know and strive to meet the demands of consumers as related to the industry.

4-H Club Notes

By Pat C. Garner
Ass't County Agent

4-H members, are you interested in learning more about team demonstrations? Team demonstrations will be given by Mrs. Johnson, County Home Demonstration Agent and Pat Garner, Ass't County Agent, at all 4-H Club meetings in January.

Team demonstrations will improve your leadership, self-confidence, knowledge and ability to speak to an audience. A good team demonstration consists of three parts: the introduction, body and summary.

There are several different types of team demonstrations that can be given at District and State 4-H Club Contests, and the awards given, in many cases are very nice.

Team demonstrations can be given in such fields as Beef Cattle Dairy, Electric, Farm Management, Farmer Cooperative Activity, Poultry Marketing, Poultry, Vegetable Preparation and Use, Dairy Foods and Safety.

Resume Of 1960 HD Activities

By Frances H. Johnson
Home Demonstration Agent

The Milam county home demonstration work is carried on principally through Council and Club. The home demonstration Council met 10 times during 1960, with an average attendance of 15. The six standing committees carried out the recommendations made earlier in the year.

Some highlights of the year were: the Tea and Dress Revue during National Home Demonstration Week in May, a tour of the Taylor Bedding Mfg. Co. and Ganado Sports Wear, Pecan & Foods Show and annual Christmas party.

The major demonstrations carried in 1960 were Yards and Clothing. Leaders from the clubs were trained and gave programs to their clubs. The Special Interest Workshop on Coffee and Teas in October was thoroughly enjoyed by those participating in it.

The county Civil Defense program has been boosted by the efforts of home demonstration and 4-H Club leaders and members.

'60 Soil Review

The supervisors of the Taylor Soil Conservation District have completed and issued the progress report for the district for 1960. The report shows that 138 additional landowners became cooperators with the district and were assisted in getting a conservation program started on their farm during the year.

The report also showed that 19 of the 58 proposed flood retarding structures to be constructed in Brushy creek watershed had been completed and that five were under construction.

There are now 2,655 landowners cooperating with the district with 571,337 acres of land. These cooperators represent 51 per cent of all the farms in the district and 66 per cent of all the agricultural land in the district. The report further shows that per head. This brings the total number of miles of terraces that have been constructed in the district to 5,075 miles, 68 miles of diversion terraces and 2,664 waterways.

County Agent Notes

Local Winners To Appear On TV

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Milam county award winners in the Texas Hybrid Corn and Grain Sorghum Contest will appear on Johnny Watkins TV program next Tuesday at 12:30 noon, to pick up $115 cash awards, according to J. D. Moore, local county agent.

Local winners to receive cash awards in the Texas Hybrid Corn division are: Joe Paul Mueck in the dryland division. Joe Paul is a second year winner. Last year he received the 100 bu. per acre plaque.

In the irrigated Hybrid corn division winners are Judith Mueck, Jane Mueck and Joe P. Mueck.

Awards winners in the Texas Hybrid Grain contest are Henry Tomask, Jr. of the Ad Hall community who placed 2nd in the dryland division and Joe Paul Mueck with the only entry in the irrigated division.

Yields per acre and cash awards are to be released on the TV program Tuesday, Jan. 10.

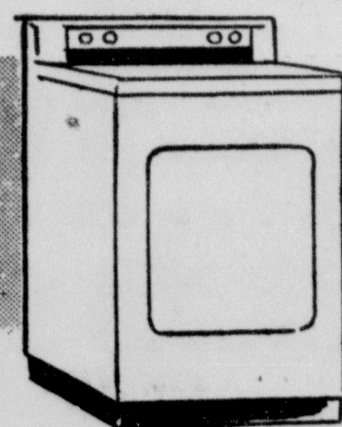

TIPS FOR JANUARY — January is a good month to consider Farm Enterprise Records. Because of high cost, records to determine the possibilities of making money from various enterprises were never so important.

Farm records also help simplify farm income tax reporting. Farm Record books are available from Texas A & M College for 75 cents.

January is a good time to spray trees and shrubs with a dormant spray. All dead and diseased branches should be removed, the tree or shrub pruned if needed and a dormant spray applied. The reason for applying a dormant spray is to control scale insects and other conditions requiring an oil emulsion for their control.

Some years ago, the Los Angeles Herald printed this item: "In 1628 well informed people said it was impossible to transmit the human voice over wires."

Amusing? Well, did you know that some pretty well-informed people today, in the year 1961, haven't learned that Chiropractic is the modern revolution sweeping the healing sciences? The West German medics have adopted Chiropractic wholeheartedly — name and all.

The Texas State Chiropractic Association invites you to "Live Modern" and use Chiropractic care to restore your health. You will receive professional care in keeping with high educational requirements (six years College).
